

Whistle blower policy

Preface

1. Pokarna Limited (The “Company”) believes in the conduct of the affairs of its constituents in a fair and transparent manner by adoption of highest standards of professionalism, honesty, integrity and ethical behavior. Any actual or potential violation of the ethics, howsoever, insignificant or perceived as such, would be a matter of serious concern for the Company. The role of employees in pointing out such violations of the Ethic cannot be undermined.
2. Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 and Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement requires every Listed company and such class of companies as may be prescribed to establish vigil mechanism (“Whistle Blower Policy”) for directors and employees to report to the management instances of unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Company’s code of conduct. The vigil mechanism is required to provide adequate safeguards against victimisation of persons who use such mechanisms and also to ensure direct access to the Audit Committee in appropriate or exceptional cases.
3. The Whistle Blower Policy (“the Policy”) has been formulated with a view to provide a mechanism for employees and directors of the Company to approach the Audit Committee of the Company.

Definitions

The definitions of some of the key terms used in this Policy are given below.

1. “Audit Committee” means the Audit Committee constituted by the Board of Directors of the Company in accordance with Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement.
2. “Directors” as defined in the Companies Act, 2013.
3. “Employee” means every permanent employee of the Company (whether working in India or abroad), including the Directors in the employment of the Company.
4. “Ethics Committee” means a committee comprising of Executive Director, Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary of the Company set up for the implementation and compliance of the Policy.

1. If a Protected Disclosure is received by any executive of the Company other than the Respective Committee, the same should be forwarded to the Respective Committee as the case may be for further appropriate action.
2. Appropriate care must be taken to keep the identity of the Whistle Blower confidential.
3. Protected Disclosures should be reported in writing so as to ensure a clear understanding of the issues raised and should either be typed or written in a legible handwriting in English, Hindi, Telugu or in the regional language of the place of employment of the Whistle Blower.

4. The Protected Disclosure should be forwarded under a covering letter which shall bear the identity of the Whistle Blower. Respective Committee as the case may be shall detach the covering letter and forward only the Protected Disclosure to the Investigators for investigation.
5. Protected Disclosures should be factual and not speculative or in the nature of a conclusion, and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow for proper assessment of the nature and extent of the concern and the urgency of a preliminary investigative procedure.
6. The Whistle Blower must disclose his/her identity in the covering letter forwarding such Protected Disclosure. Anonymous disclosures will not be entertained as it would not be possible to interview the Whistle Blowers.
7. If any of the members of the Respective Committee have a conflict of interest in a Protected Disclosures, they should reclude themselves and others on the Committee shall deal with the same.

Investigation

1. All Protected Disclosures reported under this Policy will be investigated by the Respective Committee of the Company who will investigate/oversee the investigations under its authorization. The Respective Committee may at its discretion, consider appointing any Investigators for the purpose of investigation.
2. The decision to conduct an investigation taken by the Respective Committee is by itself not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact – finding process.
3. The outcome of the investigation may or may not support the conclusion of the Whistle Blower that an improper or unethical act was committed.
4. The identity of the Subject will be kept confidential to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.
5. Subject will be informed of the allegations at the appropriate stage and will have opportunities for providing their inputs / explanation during the investigation.
6. Subject shall have a duty to co-operate with the Respective Committee or any of the Investigators during investigation to the extent that such cooperation will not compromise self – incrimination protections available under the applicable laws.
7. Subject have a right to consult with a person or persons of their choice, other than the Ethics Committee/ Investigators and/or members of the Audit Committee and/or the Whistle Blower.
8. Subject have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with, and witnesses shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the Subject.
9. Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, Subject will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in an investigation report.
10. No allegation of wrongdoing against a Subject shall be considered as maintainable unless there is evidence in support of the allegation.
11. Subject have a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigation. If allegations are not sustained, the Subject should be consulted as to whether public disclosure of the investigation results would be in the best interest of the Subject and the Company.

12. The investigation shall be completed normally within 45 days of the receipt of the Protected Disclosure.

Protection

1. No unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy. The Company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Whistle Blowers.
2. Subject to clause 5 (c) above, complete protection will therefore be given to Whistle Blowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his/her duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure. The Company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience as a result of making the Protected Disclosure. Thus, if the Whistle Blower is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the Company will arrange for the Whistle Blower to receive advice about the procedure, etc.
3. A Whistle Blower may report any violation of the above clause to the Respective Committee who shall investigate the same and recommend suitable action to the management.
4. The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law. Whistle Blowers are cautioned that their identity may become known for reasons outside the control of the Respective Committee (e.g. during investigations carried out by Investigators).
5. Any other Employee assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.

Investigators

1. Investigators are required to conduct a process towards fact-finding and analysis. Investigators shall derive their authority and access rights from the Respective Committee when acting within the course and scope of their investigation.
2. Technical and other resources may be drawn upon as necessary to augment the investigation. All Investigators shall be independent and unbiased both in fact and as perceived. Investigators have a duty of fairness, objectivity, thoroughness, ethical behavior, and observance of legal and professional standards.
3. Investigations will be launched only after a preliminary review which establishes that:
 - o The alleged act constitutes an improper or unethical activity or conduct, and
 - o Either the allegation is supported by information specific enough to be investigated, or matters that do not meet this standard may be worthy of management review, but investigation itself should not be undertaken as an investigation of an improper or unethical activity.

Decision

If an investigation leads the Respective Committee to conclude that an improper or unethical act has been committed, the Respective Committee shall recommend to the management of the Company to take such disciplinary or corrective action as the Respective Committee deems fit. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff conduct and disciplinary procedures.

Reporting

The Ethics Committee will meet at least once in every quarter and shall report to the Audit Committee every quarter and the Audit Committee shall report to the Board periodically about all Protected Disclosures if any referred to them together with the results of investigations

Access to Chairman of The Audit Committee

The Whistle Blower shall have right to access Chairman of the Audit Committee directly in exceptional cases and the Chairman of the Audit Committee is authorized to prescribe suitable directions in this regard.

Communication

Directors and Employees shall be informed of the Policy by publishing on the notice board and the website of the Company.

Retention of documents

All Protected Disclosures in writing or documented along with the results of investigation relating thereto which has been proved shall be retained by the Company for a minimum period of five years. Other Protected Disclosures may be destroyed at the end of the financial year.

Amendment

The Company reserves its right to amend or modify this Policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever. The Ethics Committee / Audit Committee will also review the Policy and suggest amendments to make it responsive and relevant to the changing times.
